

Retrograde

By Maeve Devitt

When life gets rough
Things don't go your way
When your job is too tough coworkers ruin your day
When your friends start to ghost
Your boyfriend doesn't call
When your therapist is mean
She doesn't help at all

Go grab your kombucha and pull up a chair,
Or get in downward dog and take a deep breath of air,
This may come as a shock, but lemme tell you the sitch,
Mercury's not in retrograde, you're just a bitch.
(biiiiitch) don't blame that little planet
(biiiiitch) It's millions of miles away
(biiiiitch) it's just a rock in orbit
(biiiiitch) and you're just bitch

When you forget grandma's birthday
She just turned 88
She cut you out of her will
And then died the next day
When your whole life has been hard
And everything seems unfair
When you get fired from your job
And no one seems to care

Go grab your pumpkin spice latte, and wear leggings as pants
Take a picture of your dog and put it on instagram
I'm the bearer of bad news, you know I hate to be a snitch but Mercury's not in retrograde....

When it's September 2021
The rules don't apply to you
So you go to a wedding
The guest list is over 202
And then a week later
You wake up feeling like shit
You think "Mercury just be in retrograde"
NOPE, YOU HAVE COVID and you're just a bitch

(Biiiiitch) don't blame that little planet
(Biiiiitch) and get the fucking vax
(Biiiiitch) or you'll kill your other grandma
Covid's real and you're a bitch
